1 PROCEEDINGS (The following proceedings were held in open court before 2 3 the Honorable Rya W. Zobel, United States District Court Judge, and the Honorable Jennifer C. Boal, Magistrate Judge, United 4 5 States District Court, District of Massachusetts, at the John J. 6 Moakley United States Courthouse, One Courthouse Way, Boston, 7 Massachusetts, on May 28, 2015.) 8 JUDGE ZOBEL: Good afternoon. Please be seated. 9 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: This is In Re: New 10 England Compounding. It's MD-13-2419. 11 JUDGE ZOBEL: Good afternoon. 12 I guess we should start with some indication of 13 counsel who are going to speak. Ms. Johnson I know. Who else 14 is going to speak? 15 MR. GASTEL: Ben Gastel on behalf of the Plaintiffs' 16 Steering Committee, your Honor. 17 MS. DOUGHERTY: Kim Dougherty on behalf of the 18 Plaintiffs' Steering Committee, your Honor. 19 MS. MARTIN: Annika Martin, as pro se liaison, your 20 Honor. 21 JUDGE ZOBEL: I'm sorry? 22 MS. MARTIN: Annika Martin as pro se liaison. 23 JUDGE ZOBEL: Yes. And anybody else? Yes, Mr. 24 Gottfried. 25 MR. GOTTFRIED: Michael Gottfried, counsel for the

               JUDGE ZOBEL: Is that it?
11
               (No response.)
12 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay.
13
               MR. KIRBY: Your Honor, this is Greg Kirby. I'm on 14 the phone, if you can hear me.
15
               JUDGE ZOBEL: I can hear you.
16
               MR. KIRBY: I represent the Box Hill defendants.
17
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. And you plan to be heard?
18
               MR. KIRBY: Yes.
19
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. Anybody else?
20
               (No response.)
               JUDGE ZOBEL: All right. We have an agenda and I 21 22 guess we'll start with that. I have some other matters to 23 discuss with you, but we'll start with your agenda.
24
               MS. JOHNSON: Thank you, your Honor.
25 I would actually suggest that we deviate from the agenda just slightly. I think it would be helpful to give the 2

      Court an overview of -- now that the confirmation order has 3 been entered by Judge Boroff, of where we are, of who the parties were that had to come together to get there and, finally, where we go next.

 6 JUDGE ZOBEL: When does the confirmation order become effective or is it effective now?

 8
               MR. GOTTFRIED: June 4th.

               MR. GOTTFRIED: Yes, your Honor.
13
              MS. JOHNSON: Yes, your Honor.
14
               If I may, I have a schedule of the deadlines that are 15 set by the confirmation order I would like to hand up to the 18 JUDGE BOAL: If I could just ask. Maybe it's in the that his appointment needs to be made within 30 days of the 21 effective date of the plan.

22
               MS. JOHNSON: That's correct, your Honor.
                                                          Before the jurisdiction to then appoint Judge Nieman. So, one of the things that the PSC is working on actively is the motion to withdraw the reference, which you'll be seeing shortly, and then once the reference has been withdrawn, as contemplated by the plan, there'll be a separate motion to have Judge Nieman appointed.

         JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. Would you have another copy of these papers?
         MS. JOHNSON: Yes, your Honor.
         JUDGE ZOBEL: One for the two law clerks, please.
        MR. GASTEL: If I may, your Honor, I'll -- JUDGE ZOBEL: Do you need one, Catherine?
         (Discussion off the record at the Bench.)
         MS. JOHNSON: Okay. So, let's take it from the top.
         So, Judge Boroff entered the confirmation order on May 20th. The effective date then becomes June 4th.
where do we go from there?
         The plan creates a tort trust for the benefit of tort This Court is familiar with that because we've claimants.
already been through the tort trustee appointment process.
         I will note the Court issued an order appointing Lynne Riley tort trustee. She's now actively engaged with those responsibilities.
         There was a minor typo, however, in that submission that the PSC made to the Court where we reported that Ms.

Riley's rate was $325 an hour in one portion of our pleadings. Ms. Riley's submission, which was also provided to the Court, indicates it's $350 an hour. So, we think this was just an inadvertent typo, but we did want to be clear to the Court that her rate is $350 an hour.

The trustee will first pay fees and expenses out of the settlement pot and then pay non-tort creditors as described in the plan. Not all non-tort creditors are in fact paid, but those who are paid are paid first. Once that happens, the funds then pour over into the tort trust and that money is then reserved for the benefit of tort victims.

The tort trust will be funded by the contributions that we've discussed before, but a total of approximately $130 million in estimated contributions to the national pot, which are made by a combination of NECC's owners and shareholders, NECC's insurers, Ameridose's insurers, GDC, ARL and its insurer, Victory and its insurer, Unifirst and its insurers, Liberty and its insurers, all combined into an estimated, low end, of $130 million. There's some variability in that settlement amount because it includes contemplated tax refunds that will occur in the future. If those refunds come to pass, it's estimated that that will increase the total amount of the national pot to $157 million, give or take.

We then have three put into specific pots. Each of those pots is separate. Those total $59 million and are

1 comprised of contributions from High Point, a North Carolina 2 clinic; Inspira, a New Jersey clinic; and Insight, a Virginia 3 clinic. JUDGE ZOBEL: Now, the claimants, the plaintiffs, who 4 5 are from one of those three states will take only from the 6 specific pot that -- the pots that you've just mentioned? 7 They will not participate in the national pot, or will they? 8 MS. JOHNSON: That's not correct, your Honor. 9 Everyone is entitled to participate in the national pot. 10 individuals who were injected at one of those three clinics 11 may participate separately and additionally in the pot for 12 their particular clinic where they were injected. 13 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. 14 MS. JOHNSON: So, I'd like to take a moment to think 15 about all of the entities, individuals and lawyers who had to come together in order to pull off this settlement. 16 17 So, in addition to the contributing entities that I 18 rattled through, all of those entities had multiple layers of 19 lawyers. Each had an insurer, oftentimes multiple insurers. 20 All of them had to agree and sign off on these agreements. 21 The individual defendants had to agree to turn over 22 the proceeds of their individual insurance policies as well. 23 They all had multiple levels of attorneys. 24 The PSC's lawyer and the PSC's designated counsel, including Mr. Ellis, who the Court hears from regularly, were heavily involved and had to approve the settlements and total amounts. We also were involved in the process of determining the procedures by which those funds would ultimately be allocated, as were the official committee of creditors and their counsel, and the clinic settlements. Each clinic had a handful of lawyers representing different doctors as well as the corporate entities and the insurers.

As a result of this, a plan was put together that then received overwhelming support by tort victims. Over 99 percent of tort victims voted in favor of the plan.

Of the approximately 3500 creditors who were entitled to vote, about 2600 creditors voted for the plan. Only 25 voted against.

In the end, there were no objections to the plan, even from those defendants who are currently defending cases in front of this Court.

The U.S. trustee originally filed an objection some had called tepid, but conceded during confirmation hearing that it believed the plan proponents had met their burden to make out the remarkable circumstances that warranted the third-party releases at issue here.

The co-chair of the credit committee filed a limited objection which was withdrawn upon confirmation that circumstantial evidence would be considered as proof of injection under the existing plan.

The Tennessee Clinic Defendants and St. Thomas initially objected out of fear that the plan would affect their ability to identify NECC and other settling parties as comparative fault entities on a verdict slip, but language was compromised -- a compromise of language was reached with the trustee and, in exchange, those defendants withdrew their objection.

So, everybody likes it and we're all happy. It was a tremendous amount of work to get there. So, where are we now?

On the bankruptcy side of things, the money that we've talked about will eventually pour into the tort trust. At that point a common benefit award, if any, will be dealt with.

As a reminder, this Court has issued an order requiring an eight percent holdback. That is a holdback, though. It is not an allocation or an award in and of itself.

Lead counsel, Tom Sobol, has already solicited submissions from all plaintiffs' attorneys who believe they've done common benefit work and is personally reviewing those submissions currently. I mean, not right now, but this week it was on his desk.

And we expect to have a motion to the Court to be presented before the next status conference addressing a common benefit award, if any.

Claim packages will be mailed to victims in June, by June 18th. The claim packages for most of the settlements will be mailed. The Inspira -- I'm sorry -- the Insight deadline is a little behind that, but, in general, in June and July the claim packages will be sent out. From there, victims will submit claims. Those claims will be processed as they are received.

The deadline, however -- the deadline for submitting claim forms is not until October 2nd. So, even though the work is done as they come in, it's not until October 2nd that the total number of points claimed can be calculated. At that point there will be an estimate of the amount of points and the dollars that will go to each claimant and interim payments, we are hopeful, will be mailed by year-end. That is an optimistic statement, your Honor. It requires everything to run smoothly and there are not to be any wrinkles, but we are very optimistic that the initial interim payments will be made by year-end.

JUDGE ZOBEL: Do you know at this point what percentage of the whole the interim payments will represent?

MS. JOHNSON: No, we do not, and I am reluctant to estimate, your Honor, in part because you have a tax refund issue. You just don't know how big the deposit is going to be.

The claims are then paid out according to the claim resolution facilities that are incorporated into the plan itself. So, in terms of how people will be compensated and

1 how many points you're awarded for a particular injury 2 category, all of that has now been confirmed and adopted by 3 Judge Boroff in entering the confirmation order. There are slightly different procedures for each 4 5 clinic settlement, but, by in large, the broad strokes track 6 the same settlement process for the national settlement class. 7 So, that's where we go with the bankruptcy 8 settlement. 9 JUDGE ZOBEL: Do you anticipate the same timeline for 10 the three separate, Inspira and Insight and whatever --11 Premier or whatever the third one was? 12 MS. JOHNSON: Because the claim facility procedures 13 are a little bit different for each of the clinics, your 14 Honor, I would be reluctant as I'm sitting here to estimate 15 the timeframe for those pay-outs, but, recall, that everyone 16 who is getting a pay-out in one of the three clinic 17 settlements would also be getting a pay-out from the national. 18 So, at minimum, all victims should be -- to the extent they're getting money, all victims will be getting something by the 19 20 end of the year. 21 So, turning back to the MDL. So, where do we go now 22 with the MDL? 23 The vast majority of cases that are currently in this 24 MDL will ultimately be dismissed as a result of this settlement. Most of the cases in this MDL name only settling defendants. So, what's left?

The primary goal of the MDL now, as the PSC sees it, is to conduct common discovery of the national defendants who are contributing to the settlement pot and ensure that all of that common discovery material is placed into a single central repository.

Now, Judge Boal spent too much time, frankly -- she was very kind to us this morning -- listening to arguments and discovery disputes about what that discovery should entail; whether there will be depositions or not depositions, whether there are documents that need to be compelled. We see that as the primary function of this MDL now, is putting our arms around all of what is truly common discovery from the settling defendants, which includes NECC, Ameridose, GDC, the individual Insiders, as well as ARL, Unifirst, Liberty, any of the other settling defendants.

Now, the PSC feels very strongly -- and I probably said it too often -- that this common discovery of the settling defendants should be done once and only once and it should be done efficiently, should be centralized and then it should be done. Meaning, there should be a deadline by which that discovery is completed.

JUDGE ZOBEL: Who is conducting this discovery of the settling defendants? Is it PSC or the individual plaintiffs or is it primarily the other defendants?

MS. JOHNSON: By in large, the PSC has concluded taking discovery of the settling defendants. The PSC is still engaged in lots of other discovery of other non-parties and the defendants in this case that have not settled, but, by in large, we have concluded what we think we need in order for us to preserve plaintiffs' rights to take the common discovery from settling defendants. What you are seeing primarily are defendants in the MDL serving discovery on settling defendants to bolster their comparative fault defenses, and the Court and many of the lawyers in this room heard a number of arguments this morning about that, but, by in large, it is discovery to help comparative -- establish comparative fault. JUDGE ZOBEL: By comparative fault, you mean entitlement to contribution? MS. JOHNSON: Not quite, your Honor. Understanding that the --JUDGE ZOBEL: Talking about comparative fault to be between plaintiff and defendant? MS. JOHNSON: No, your Honor. So, Tennessee has a unique statutory scheme and while I do not profess to be an expert in that scheme, broadly speaking -- and Mr. Gastel will correct me if I get this wrong -- under Tennessee law for... (Discussion off the record.) MS. JOHNSON: ...for not the products claims, for the 1 other products claims, Tennessee has a statute that permits a 2 defendant to identify other parties who bear fault on the 3 verdict slip and actually ask the jurors to assign the amount of fault --4 5 JUDGE ZOBEL: And they call that comparative fault? 6 MS. JOHNSON: That's correct, your Honor. That's 7 correct. 8 So, it is an effort by -- so, the discovery that's 9 being done of the settling defendants is an effort to help 10 primarily the Tennessee, also the New Jersey, defendants 11 bolster their comparative fault defenses and be able at the 12 end of the day to give the jurors a jury slip that says it's 13 not all our fault, tell us how much fault is their fault, and 14 then the Tennessee defendants' liability is reduced by that 15 percentage. 16 JUDGE ZOBEL: I guess I don't fully understand how the settling defendants' conduct fits into that, because the 17 18 settling defendants, presumably, had nothing to do with the 19 Tennessee defendants. 20 MS. JOHNSON: As I understand it, your Honor, although I'm trying to pick a simple example, the Tennessee 21 22 defendants intend to say it's NECC's fault because they sold 23 the poison product --24 JUDGE ZOBEL: That I can understand. 25 MS. JOHNSON: -- and it's their fault.

1
               JUDGE ZOBEL: But how about the settling defendants 2 other than NECC?
 3
               MS. JOHNSON: You would have to ask the Tennessee defendants, your Honor.
 4 5
               MS. GREER: Your Honor, Marcy Greer for the Tennessee 6 defendants.
 7
               And I, too, am not an expert on Tennessee law, but 8 the concept is -- 9
               JUDGE ZOBEL: You represent them.
10
               MS. GREER: Exactly, but I -- so, I just want to be 11 clear on that point, but the way that it works -- 12
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Well, I'm still not clear. If you 13 represent them, you should be clear on Tennessee law.
14
               MS. GREER: I'm clear on how this will work and what 15 we're trying to accomplish.
16 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay.
17
               MS. GREER: And that is, to put the other defendants 18
      -- they won't be responsible. They won't have to pay at the 19 end of the day, but on the verdict form we're entitled to 20 submit the defendants -- the people who are responsible for 21 what happened, all of them, and -- 22 JUDGE ZOBEL: Yes, but let me just -- 23
               MS. GREER: -- we have to establish a case against 24 them.

I understand how Tennessee might want to know something about NECC. I do not understand how Tennessee defendants can benefit from the Virginia defendants' settlement. MS. GREER: Not the Virginia defendants. Only the national. JUDGE ZOBEL: So, when you talk about getting discovery from other defendants, you're talking about the Framingham defendants? MS. GREER: Only the national defendants. Not just Framingham. Also the entities that cleaned -- that designed and constructed the clean rooms, that maintained them. All of those defendants, who are the national defendants, are part of this discussion. JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. Now I understand. At some point there was a question raised about what law would govern the trial in this case. Would it be useful, Ms. Johnson, to get a decision on that here? That is, would it be useful to consider what is the choice of law, if and when any of these cases go back because the defendants won't agree to have them tried here? MS. JOHNSON: Absolutely, your Honor. That would be incredibly helpful. JUDGE ZOBEL: In that case, let us establish a schedule for doing that.

1 MS. JOHNSON: Terrific. 2 JUDGE ZOBEL: Would it be possible for -- I mean, I 3 assume the plaintiffs should take the burden -- the initial burden and then the defendants who are interested in this can 4 5 respond. And I was thinking about a schedule whereby somewhere around mid June you would let me know what your 6 7 proposal is. Is that too fast? 8 MS. JOHNSON: Yes, your Honor. We would suggest, 9 actually, that the PSC would file a brief -- motion or brief. 10 I'm not sure what it's styled as. 11 JUDGE ZOBEL: Motion for determination of the choice 12 of law. 13 MS. JOHNSON: Choice of law. And we would propose 14 filing that by mid June. 15 MS. GREER: Your Honor, if I may. 16 This issue was briefed in the motions to dismiss, and 17 in your order on August 29th, you said that Tennessee law 18 applied. We briefed the issue on the context of the motion to 19 dismiss, because whether you use First Circuit or Sixth 20 Circuit choice of law principles, it all leads to the same 21 place, which is Tennessee as the substantive law to govern 22 these claims. 23 JUDGE ZOBEL: Well, let's review it and see whether 24 -- that was in a different context from the context I'm now 25 talking about, which has to do with the trial, and if -- I mean, I assume the Tennessee cases will be tried in Tennessee.

 2
      At least, that's what it looks like now.
 3
               So, I think we ought to look at it in the context of what would be the governing law at the time of trial.
 4 5
               MS. JOHNSON: Yes, your Honor, we will do that. I 6 will say the context -- 7 JUDGE ZOBEL: June what?
 8 (Discussion off the record.)
               MS. JOHNSON: June 15th, if that's a weekday.
 9 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: Yes.
10 11
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. And then the defendants, 12 whichever ones are not settled and who may want to go back to 13 their home state -- so, it's not just Tennessee. There may be 14 some New Jersey ones and some -- I've forgotten. I think we 15 have one Alabama case and there may be some in Texas. The 16 appropriate defendants would file -- when would you suggest?
17
      Right after July 4th, would that be okay?
18
               MS. GREER: Yes, your Honor, we can make that work.
               COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: So, it will be 7/6?
19 20 JUDGE ZOBEL: Yes.
21
               COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: Okay, 7/6.
22
               JUDGE ZOBEL: 7/6.
23
               And then the plaintiffs could file a short reply, no 24 more than three pages, I think, by the week after that.
25
               COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: Would be 7/13.
```

```
1
               MS. JOHNSON: Yes, your Honor.
 2
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Do I need to hear argument or can I 3 decide it on the papers? What's Tennessee's view? I mean, I
      -- if there is New Jersey here, you might also tell me.
 4 5
               MR. GASTEL: I think the PSC would prefer argument on 6 that, your Honor, and one clarification. How long did you 7 want the reply brief to be?
 8 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: Three pages.
 9
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Three pages.
10
              MR. GASTEL: Three pages. Thank you, your Honor.
11
               JUDGE ZOBEL: I don't want a reply brief at all.
12
              MS. JOHNSON: How long would you like the opening 13 brief to be, your Honor, 20 pages or less?
14
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Yes, 20 pages under the rule. Each 15 side has 20 pages, but the reply can be three pages. And then 16 you do want a hearing?
17
               MS. JOHNSON: Yes, please, your Honor.
18
               JUDGE ZOBEL: We don't have anything scheduled I 19 think in July, do we?
20 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: No.
21
              MS. JOHNSON: I think we have a July 27th status -- 22 oh, I'm sorry, no, that's off.
23
               JUDGE ZOBEL: I think August was our last -- 24
               MS. GREER: August 5th, your Honor.
25
               MS. JOHNSON: August 5th, your Honor, would be the

1 next status conference. 2 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: Yes. 3 JUDGE ZOBEL: So, maybe we can add it into that and in that case we can extend the -- well, August 5th -- so, we 4 5 have the hearing as a status conference on August 5th. 6 MS. JOHNSON: Yes, your Honor. 7 JUDGE ZOBEL: Will that work for you? 8 JUDGE BOAL: Yes. And I would just add, because with 9 Tennessee and New Jersey and, I gather, there's another state 10 that has comparative fault, as being the only states, if the 11 choice of law is between Massachusetts and Tennessee, with 12 respect to all the discovery motions that we heard earlier 13 today, if Massachusetts law is going to apply, then we don't 14 have the comparative fault discovery that we were talking 15 about earlier today, maybe. But I don't want to hear argument 16 on that now. I think you're absolutely right, we had plenty 17 this morning, but I would just -- could the affected parties 18 at least file something in a week just to let me know whether 19 or not they think the decision is going to affect the 20 discovery, if they can. Is that possible? 21 MS. JOHNSON: Yes. May I suggest within one week 22 each side file a brief of no more than three pages to inform 23 the Court of their position. 24 JUDGE BOAL: That would be helpful. 25 JUDGE ZOBEL: Now, I had so rudely interrupted you, Ms. Johnson. Where were we?

MS. JOHNSON: All interruptions are very much appreciated, your Honor.

So, let's talk about -- I think I was describing what the remaining cases are, what's left in the MDL.

And there are three sets of motions in front of the Court that relate to scheduling issues. Before I address any of those in particular or try to argue it, I would like to just share with the Court what the PSC's view is of what's left and just broadly at a high level so that we can have the discussion to describe how we think that might be phrased or bucketed.

So that the remaining cases, they really fall into five buckets. I tried to make it three buckets, but, really, it's five.

The first would be the St. Thomas Clinics and Entities. There are 89 cases currently pending against St. Thomas in the MDL. Discovery is well underway. The case has been on file for two years. The PSC has proposed a Bellwether process to deal with the St. Thomas cases. I think we'll come back to that in a minute.

And just to mention it so the Court is aware, there was a motion filed for an expedited trial of the Wayne Reed case.

JUDGE ZOBEL: I am very much aware of that.

MS. JOHNSON: Counsel for Mr. Reed has asked that that be heard at the next status conference because he's not able to participate today, but I did want to just mention to the Court --

JUDGE ZOBEL: Well, there's no opposition filed yet and it's not due for another week or so.

MS. JOHNSON: That's correct. That's correct. And we don't need to be rushing to have the Court address that today, particularly when the opposition and response has not been filed yet, but we would like to have it on the agenda for the next conference.

The second bucket, then, would be the other Tennessee clinic cases which are cases against Specialty Surgery Center. There are 24 cases in the MDL against Specialty Surgery Center. Those cases, sometimes I think we lump in, and talk about the Tennessee defendants or the Tennessee clinics, but there are some differences between those groups, one of which that is important is that there's a newly-discovered defendant relating -- I'm sorry -- a newly-discovered defendant in cases against Specialty Surgery Center and I understand the plaintiffs need time to file motions to amend to add that defendant quickly. The time to do so is approaching.

The third bucket would be cases against Premier, which is a New Jersey clinic. There are 40 cases against Premier in the MDL. Discovery there is also well underway.

The PSC has proposed that the pretrial schedule for Premier should be -- should lag behind St. Thomas a bit, but really be the second phase of trial. I'm sorry, I said that very poorly. That phase two of trials would include Premier, and the PSC has proposed a schedule for the Premier cases that tracks but lags a little bit behind the St. Thomas schedule.

The fourth bucket would be cases against Box Hill, which is a clinic in Maryland. There are eight cases on file against Box Hill in the MDL. I understand that counsel for Box Hill is aware of 25 additional claims against Box Hill and counsel for plaintiffs have announced their intention to file additional cases in the MDL. That's not happened yet, but just to give a preview.

JUDGE ZOBEL: So, the 25 cases are in the state court?

MS. JOHNSON: No. Claims, not cases, your Honor.
So, 25 victims who have identified that they may have causes of action against Box Hill.

JUDGE ZOBEL: At the moment there are eight?

MS. JOHNSON: Correct.

Box Hill is in a different category in the sense that even though the PSC served discovery requests on Box Hill quite sometime ago, Box Hill has not yet produced a single document, and while the PSC is pressing forward with discovery, trying to litigate those cases as quickly as is

```
1 reasonably possible, we recognize that Box Hill becomes a 2 third tier, a third-phase defendant. We expect that they will 3 fall somewhere behind the Premier schedule. And, again, we proposed a schedule as to how -- those specific deadlines and,
 4 5 in fact, I will hand up to the Court, if I may -- I apologize, 6 your Honor. One moment.
 7 (Pause.)
 8
               (Attorney Johnson hands document to the Court.)
 9
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Don't you need that?
10
               MS. JOHNSON: No. I can make do.
11
               MR. GASTEL: I have one in a binder.
12 JUDGE ZOBEL: I have -- 13
               MS. JOHNSON: I've handed up to the Court -- 14
               JUDGE ZOBEL: I have it already. You gave me one 15 earlier.
16
               MS. JOHNSON: Okay. Then I will take it back, if I 17 may. Thank you.
18
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Is this different from -- 19
               MS. JOHNSON: I think I can help you out, your Honor.
20
               This is a copy of an amended proposed MDL Order 9B that the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee filed yesterday, and 21 22
      I've handed this up to the Court because this proposed order 23 sets out the comprehensive schedule that the PSC is proposing 24 for St. Thomas, Premier and Box Hill, all in one place, laid 25 out side by side, so the Court can actually see that proposal.
```

1
               I should note, there was an earlier version of this 2 order that we submitted.
 3 JUDGE ZOBEL: Yes.
               MS. JOHNSON: This is amended.
 4 5
               JUDGE ZOBEL: This is number -- no.
 6
               MS. JOHNSON: This is modified to reflect -- 7 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay.
 8
               MS. JOHNSON: -- the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee 9 also yesterday agreed that it would -- I guess we agreed that 10 we would not fight the defendants' motions quite as hard. We 11 agreed that we would extend the deadlines set by existing MDL 12
      Order 9 by 45 days. All of the deadlines set by MDL Order 9 13 by 45 days.
14
               So, the schedule you have in front of your Honors 15 really is the schedule and the PSC's proposal, and I would 16 urge the Court to use this as the guiding proposal from the 17
      PSC when considering any of the scheduling motions that you 18 may hear today.
19
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Well, are the defendants objecting to 20 this?
21
               MS. GREER: Your Honor, we haven't had a chance to 22 respond to it yet. Our response date is not until next week.
23
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. So, I should assume that you 24 will object?
25
               MS. GREER: We just got it last night and we think
```

1 there's some issues that we need to take up. 2 MR. WOLK: And, your Honor, Chris Wolk for the 3 Premier defendants. We also object. We filed a brief objecting to the 4 motion and the order -- I guess it was the order before the 5 6 one that was filed last night. I have not seen the one that 7 was filed last night yet. So, I can't comment on it. 8 If it's being represented that it's just extending 9 the existing deadlines by 45 days, we do object to that, and 10 we've also submitted to your Honor our proposal for a new case 11 management order for your consideration. 12 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. 13 MS. JOHNSON: Just to be clear, you wanted to extend 14 the deadlines by 90 days, right? So, now we've agreed to 15 extend them by 45. So, you object to the 45 days? MR. WOLK: Well, I think in my deadline -- I set 16 17 forth the deadlines in my brief. I don't think it was 90 18 days. I think I asked for common discovery to be extended to 19 December. That was the --20 MS. JOHNSON: Okay. 21 MR. WOLK: Maybe there's some confusion. I'd be 22 happy to clear it up, but --23 JUDGE ZOBEL: All right. So, what is before me is --24 MR. WOLK: Your Honor, part of the --JUDGE ZOBEL: Part of the agenda was the proposed --25 the cross-motion to amend the Order No. 9.

 2
               MS. JOHNSON: And if I -- 3
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Now amending Order 9B.
               MS. JOHNSON: There is no Order 9B.
 4 5
               JUDGE ZOBEL: There was a proposed Order 9B.
 6
               MS. JOHNSON: This is an amended proposed order.
                                                                  Ιt
 7 would become an Order 9B.
 8
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay.
 9 MS. JOHNSON: And if I may.
10
               I understand there are a number of motions to be 11
              I did want to at least identify the fifth bucket of 12 cases for your Honor before we perhaps turn to argument.
13
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Well, I wasn't looking for the argument 14
                  I'm just trying to understand what we're talking 15 about. So, what we're talking about is Item A-1 on the agenda?
16
               MS. JOHNSON: Correct, your Honor.
17 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay.
18
               MS. JOHNSON: So, the fifth bucket of cases, then, 19 which is addressed in Item A-1 on the agenda, are cases 20 against clinics where there are five or fewer cases on file in 21 the MDL, and there is a list of those clinics if you look in 22 that proposed order that you have in front of you. At the 23 very last page, it identifies those clinics by name. I think 24 it's about 18 clinics, your Honor, that are on that list.
25
               And in terms of those clinics, the PSC has asked in its motion to amend MDL Order 9, that common discovery as to those clinics be stayed, that the deadline for common discovery as to those clinics be stayed.

Now, the reason that we're asking for that is there's some question about whether there could even be common discovery of a clinic that would really benefit multiple people if there are four or fewer cases. There may be more cases filed, there may not be, but at least as of right now, the PSC's strategic suggestions, that we focus on litigating those cases that we have been litigating with the majority of cases and we move forward with it.

Now, I want to make one important distinction, your Honor, which is this: The PSC again will reiterate that it thinks now is the time to do discovery from the settling defendants. So, when we talk about extending deadlines or staying anything with respect to these clinics of four or fewer cases, those clinics need to understand that we are not staying the deadline for completing common discovery against the settling defendants. That is to be done now, once and for all time. The PSC, I think, has conveyed that very loudly to all of those clinics as well this Court and all of the lawyers on the phone, but that is our position.

Now, what ultimately --

JUDGE ZOBEL: Sorry. Are you saying that these cases would not benefit from common discovery or that they would be

1 included in -- that everything would be stayed except common 2 discovery as to these small defendant group? 3 MS. JOHNSON: One moment, your Honor. 4 (Pause.) 5 MS. JOHNSON: We are asking that the Court enter an 6 order temporarily staying the deadlines for completing common 7 discovery against those clinic and doctor defendants with five 8 or fewer filed actions currently pending against them in the 9 MDL, but not staying the deadline for those clinics completing 10 discovery from the settling defendants and third parties. 11 Meaning, the PSC doesn't want to take the resources to go and 12 do discovery of each of those clinics, but the PSC feels very 13 strongly that those clinics need to understand that the deadline for completing common discovery against the settling 14 15 defendants will run soon. Whether that gets extended some or 16 not, that will run and this is their opportunity to take that 17 discovery. 18 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. 19 MS. JOHNSON: So, with that setup, we're turning to 20 the agenda, your Honor, if we can. There are three groups of motions that relate to 21 22 scheduling issues. The first is agenda Item No. 1. That's 23 the PSC's motion to amend MDL Order 9 and, again, that motion 24 asks for three things: 25 It asks for the Court to stay the deadline for conducting common discovery against the clinics with five or fewer cases filed against them. It asks the Court to adopt the amended proposed MDL Order 9B and set pretrial schedules as to Premier and Box Hill; and, third, it asks the Court to adopt the PSC's revised Bellwether proposal and schedule as to St. Thomas and, again, proposed amended Order 9B puts all of those in one place in one schedule for the Court to consider. The second --JUDGE ZOBEL: This is something that should be argued today? MS. JOHNSON: I don't think we can argue it today, your Honor. Technically, the PSC's motion was a cross motion that was opposing a scheduling motion filed by somebody else, but the time to oppose the PSC's cross motion has not run, unfortunately. And so, I understand the St. Thomas Entities did not want this heard today. I also understand that the Premier entities and the Box Hill entities do want this heard today, and we would all like the scheduling issues to be resolved. I know that much. JUDGE ZOBEL: Is there any reason why -- is this for you or me? It's discovery. (Laughter.) MS. JOHNSON: I can tell you what we think about that, your Honor, but the real answer is the PSC has no preference which judge resolves the issue. I think

1 technically -- 2
               JUDGE ZOBEL: We will work on it together.
 3
               MS. JOHNSON: Okay. Wonderful. Wonderful.
               JUDGE ZOBEL: So, is there any reason, since we are 4 5 double-teaming you guys for once, that we not -- why can't we decide it as soon as all the papers are in? Why do we need 6 7 argument?
 8
               MS. JOHNSON: The PSC is perfectly comfortable with 9 that.
10
               MR. WOLK: Your Honor, the only thing that I want to 11 bring to the Court's attention is right now we have a June 12
      15th deadline, and I did have some discussions at the break 13 about this, and I just want to be perfectly clear.
               I don't know if your Honor is going to be able to 14 15 arque this at the next conference or hear it on the papers 16 when all the submissions are in, but it may interfere and run into that June 15th deadline that's looming right now.
17 18
               So, I don't know if I can consent on this request. I 19 don't know, but my proposal would be if we could get something 20 to get that common discovery deadline pushed 45 days, 60 days, 21
      I don't know, until this can be decided by your Honor and we can -- and argued and decided and have an order entered.
22
23
               JUDGE ZOBEL: The answer to that is that -- this was 24 filed as of two days ago, right?
25
               MS. GREER: Right.
```

1 MS. JOHNSON: Yes. 2 JUDGE ZOBEL: So, you will get your opposition in 14 3 days from two days ago. Judge Boal and I will review it. We'll make a decision. That will include an extension of time 4 5 for the common discovery that takes into account the time that 6 was lost. 7 MS. JOHNSON: And --8 JUDGE ZOBEL: And you can in your response suggest 9 what that would be and we will, obviously, consider it. So, 10 we will decide it without further argument, but based on these 11 additional facts that you want to tell us that are clearly 12 important. 13 MS. JOHNSON: And to be clear, there may not be any 14 disagreement here on the following point: 15 The PSC has agreed to a 45-day extension of the 16 deadline for common discovery and the other deadlines set by 17 MDL Order 9. We've stipulated to that. 18 JUDGE ZOBEL: So, there may not even be anything to 19 decide, but to the extent that you think there is, given the 20 stipulation, you tell me. 21 MR. WOLK: We'll submit it to your Honor. 22 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. So, this will be decided on the 23 papers. 24 JUDGE BOAL: Yes. And if I could just add, the PSC 25 in the past has done very helpful charts that outline what the differences are between the parties' proposal and it's a very 2 useful visual. So, I would very much appreciate if we could 3 get that once all the different proposals are in.

               MS. JOHNSON: We will provide that for you, your 4 5
      Honor, and we'll try and turn around as quickly as we can 6 after the defendants file their response.
 7 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay.
 8
               MS. JOHNSON: And my colleagues are correcting me, 9 that we have stipulated to a 45-day extension of the unexpired 10 deadlines in MDL Order 9.
11
               JUDGE ZOBEL: All right. That takes care of A-1, 12 right?
13
               JUDGE BOAL: We're moving faster than this morning.
14
               MS. JOHNSON: Believe it or not, we are.
15 (Laughter.)
16
               MS. JOHNSON: I do think much of this, your Honor, we 17 have covered now by our sort of free-and-loose discussion.
18
      So, maybe we can actually make some progress.
               I think that brings us to (B), report to the Court.
19 20
      In terms of the status of mediation efforts, we've discussed 21 the confirmation order and those deadlines. So, we can move on.
22
               On the insurance declaratory judgment actions, which 23 is B-3, one thing to bring to the Court's attention is that a 24 declaratory judgment action has been filed involving Specialty 25 Surgery Centers' insurance coverage. That lawsuit actually
```

1 names tort victims as defendants in that case and the tort plaintiffs have been served with copies of that complaint. 2 3 They weren't pleased about it. We are now coordinating with insurance counsel on how the briefing will proceed there. 4 5 On No. 4, the status of discovery. Judge Boal heard 6 this morning 4(a), motions relating to a subpoena issued on 7 the FDA. I don't think the Court heard this morning or has 8 ever heard MSN's request to defer or abstain, which is 4(b), 9 but I think that's functionally moot, isn't it? 10 MR. RABINOVITZ: That is correct. 11 MS. JOHNSON: Okay. 4(c), the -- it's just an 12 acknowledgment that Judge Boal issued an order on the motion 13 to compel insurance from St. Thomas. So that issue has now 14 been resolved. 15 On No. 5, status of the litigation track. There have 16 been a number of Bellwether submissions submitted to the 17 Court. The PSC, St. Thomas and the Tennessee Clinic 18 Defendants have each submitted a proposal. I don't know that 19 we need to argue that. 20 I will just say, for the PSC the amended -- proposed amended order -- I'm sorry -- proposed amended MDL Order 9B 21 22 modifies what we submitted as our Bellwether schedule there to 23 reflect the 45-day extension of deadlines, unexpired deadlines in MDL Order 9. So, I would direct the Court to that proposed order that we've been focusing on this morning as the PSC's

1 current Bellwether proposal. 2 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. 3 MS. GREER: And, your Honor, I would just point out that under MDL Order 9, we have 30 days to respond to each 4 5 other's Bellwether submissions, which is June 17th. MS. JOHNSON: So, the PSC will waive that response if 6 7 the Tennessee defendants will. Our feeling is that this has 8 been briefed ad nauseam, and we appreciate the Court affording 9 us an opportunity to respond to each other's, but from our 10 perspective, no response is really productive at this point. 11 MS. GREER: Your Honor, we would appreciate your 12 quidance on that. We have not had an opportunity to respond 13 to -- the revised order came in last night. We haven't had a 14 chance to look at it and now that's part of their submission. MS. JOHNSON: Well, that's -- just to be clear, 15 16 that's different. So, there's 30 days that Judge Boal set 17 originally for the Bellwether submissions, response to each 18 other's Bellwether submissions, right? I'm suggesting we 19 waive that additional response. Obviously and, of course, Ms. 20 Puig is entitled to respond to the proposed order we just filed. 21 JUDGE ZOBEL: I think she's suggesting that you 22 include the Bellwether response in your response to what is 23 now Docket No. 1900. 24 MS. GREER: And that works for us. 25 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay.

MS. JOHNSON: That brings us to 5(b), motions for pretrial schedule. I think we functionally addressed that already. I don't know, however, whether the Tennessee Clinics, Premier and Box Hill wish to be heard additionally on those issues. MS. PUIG: We do, your Honor. Yvonne Puig for the St. Thomas Entities. We were just about to --JUDGE ZOBEL: What are you responding to? MS. PUIG: She just said that we think that we took up the St. Thomas Entities' motion. We did not. Judge Boal recessed today right before my motion was to be heard. So, the Court can take it up today or refer it back to Judge Boal, whatever is the Court's discretion. JUDGE ZOBEL: Why do we need to hear argument on every discovery motion? Can it not be decided on the briefs? MS. JOHNSON: The PSC is content with that, your Honor. JUDGE ZOBEL: I mean, I know you feel left out, but apart from that, do we really need oral argument on such a motion? MS. PUIG: Thank you, your Honor. I don't feel left out, but I do want to be heard, if only briefly and, fortunately, my argument will be vastly truncated by what occurred today for two hours, and I only regret that this Court was unable to hear it, but in brief --

1
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Well, I don't want to hear the argument 2 right now.
 3
               MS. PUIG: All right.
               JUDGE ZOBEL: If you were to insist on argument,
 4 5 we'll figure out when we're going to do it, assuming we finish 6 at a reasonable time today.
 7
               MS. PUIG: Thank you, your Honor. I appreciate it.
 8
               MS. JOHNSON: Agenda Item 6 is a report from the pro 9 se liaison.
10
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Lisa, we need to get in more 11 microphones on counsel table.
12 (Discussion off the record at the Bench.)
13
               MR. WOLK: Your Honor, before we move on to the next 14 item, I have an item listed on the agenda. It's Docket No.
15 1852. It's my motion to extend time for common discovery to 16 December 15th. That was submitted and it was replied to, but 17
      I believe that the PSC filed a cross motion to -- 18
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Well, isn't that part of 1900?
19
               MS. JOHNSON: Yes, your Honor.
20 JUDGE ZOBEL: And you will get a chance to respond to 21 that.
22
               MR. WOLK: And I just want to make sure that that's 23 clear that that will all be part of the same motion and that 24 what we are -- 25
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Everything that deals with extension of
```

```
1 time on common discovery issues is now in your hands to 2 respond to.
 3
               MR. WOLK: Thank you, your Honor.
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Thank you. That is, your collective 4 5 hands.
 6 MS. JOHNSON: They could file one collective 7 response. Just a thought.
 8
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Yes, the pro -- not pro se. The -- 9 yes, pro se liaison.
10
               MS. MARTIN: Yes, your Honor. Annika Martin.
11
               So, my report is brief. I've had -- 12 JUDGE ZOBEL: I'm glad you're doing this. I must 13 confess, that when I went senior, I had a right to decide what 14 cases I did not want to hear and I have eliminated all pro se.
15
               (Laughter.)
               MS. MARTIN: Well, I'm happy -- 16 17
               JUDGE ZOBEL: So, I'm happy that you're taking care 18 of it.
19
               MS. MARTIN: Thank you, your Honor.
20
               So, I've been contacted by around ten people, not all 21 of them were pro se's. So, for those that were not pro 22 se's -- 23
               JUDGE ZOBEL: You instructed counsel.
24
               MS. MARTIN: -- directed to talk to their counsel.
25
      And for those who were pro se's, I had some questions about the ballot that I was able to answer and about filing the claims. One gentleman needed an extension of bar date. So, I helped him file that and he successfully got an extension and filed his claims. So, he's taken care of. So, everyone that has contacted me has been -- had their questions answered or has happily gone on their way. JUDGE ZOBEL: Thank you. MS. MARTIN: So, that is what I will continue to do. MS. JOHNSON: In terms of No. 7, the status of the bankruptcy, we've already covered that. In terms of No. 8, the status of appeals. appeals have been stayed, if not dismissed, at this point. So, technically, I think it's still docketed in the First Circuit, but there's nothing going on. The schedule for future status conferences. We have a June 24th conference set with Judge Boal at 11:30 and a conference with Judge Zobel at 2:00. We also have an August 5th conference set with Judge Boal at 11:30 and with Judge Zobel at 2:00. We'd ask that the Court schedule the September conference now. Since the August conference is August 5th, I would say sometime the first week in September, first or second week in September. COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: Well, Labor Day is on the 7th. So, you want it the first --

1
               JUDGE ZOBEL: No. After that.
 2
               MS. JOHNSON: Let's do after that.
 3 JUDGE ZOBEL: After Labor Day.
               COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: So, that week we could 4 5 do the 9th. September 9th, that's a Wednesday.
               MS. PUIG: I'm unable to do it on that day, your 6 7
             Could we do the next week?
      Honor.
 8
               COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: The following week?
 9 MS. PUIG: Yes.
10 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: Okay. We could do the 11
      16th or 17th of September.
12
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Will that work for you?
13
               COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: Is that good for you?
14
               MS. JOHNSON: I'm a little concerned that that's far 15 out, given the number of deadlines that we have and how 16 quickly we're trying to move on some of this.
17 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: What about the 8th, the 18 day after Labor Day? That's a Tuesday.
19
               MS. JOHNSON: The 8th works for the PSC.
20 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: What about the rest of 21 the group? No?
22
               MS. PUIG: Does not work.
23
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Some of you could do it by telephone 24 instead of traveling.
25
               MS. JOHNSON: Perhaps the 10th, your Honor?

     hearing plaintiffs asking for the 10th.
 2 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: How about the -- I'll 3 move -- if the 10th works for everybody, I'll move what's on 4 there. Is the 10th --
              MS. PUIG: That's fine, yes. Thank you, your Honor.
 5
              COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: Okay. September 10th, 6 7 at 2:00, and I'll move what's on there. 9/10 at 2:00.
 8
              MS. JOHNSON: Thank you very much.
 9
               JUDGE ZOBEL: And, again, 11:30 and 2:00, right?
10
              MS. JOHNSON: If that works for the Court, yes, your 11 Honor.
              COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: Okay. I'll type Steve, 12 13 okay?
14
               JUDGE BOAL: Sure.
15
              MS. JOHNSON: We could also -- 16
              JUDGE ZOBEL: We're checking on 11:30.
17
              MS. JOHNSON: Yes. We also could do earlier, if the 18
      Court would prefer. I know today things got a little 19 squashed. Although, hopefully -- 20
               JUDGE ZOBEL: The more time you get, the more time 21 you will use.
              MS. JOHNSON: I know. Don't give us any more.
22 23 don't need it. Take it back, actually.
24
              Agenda Item C -- 25
              MR. MORIARTY: Excuse me. I'm sorry, but there is a
```

1 -- I hate to interrupt you, but there is something in the 2 agenda, the first (B) that I would like to address. 3 JUDGE ZOBEL: I'm sorry, what number? MR. MORIARTY: Well, (B), Ms. Johnson's prelude, or 4 5 it would be under Section B, either one. There's an issue 6 that was referred to in passing that I think deserves a little 7 bit more attention, at least from Ameridose. There has been 8 in --JUDGE ZOBEL: Could you please tell me who you are? 9 10 MR. MORIARTY: My name is Matthew Moriarty. I 11 represent Ameridose. 12 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay. Thank you. Sorry, I should have 13 known. 14 MR. MORIARTY: So, we have had some informal 15 discussions with the PSC and a number of settling defendants 16 about the actual plan that will be in place for the dismissal 17 of the cases against the settling defendants, and I have urged 18 the PSC to file what they're going to file as fast as possible 19 and that we compress the timeframes for that, because it's 20 important for the settling defendants to have some clarity as 21 we go through all of these discovery fights as to whether they 22 are parties or nonparties. So, it's very important for at 23 least Ameridose and probably others, like GDC or MSN or 24 whoever the settling entities are, to know that. 25 So, we have not exactly worked out the time deadlines by mutual agreement with the PSC, but, if necessary, Ameridose will be filing supplements to that plan to compress timeframes to get answers to that more quickly. We would like all the cases dismissed before the end of June as opposed to sometime in July or August. MS. JOHNSON: As we've discussed with Mr. Moriarty, the PSC can't do anything until after the effective date on this particular issue. We are mindful of it. It is not just cases in this MDL that are affected. There are state court cases as well. So, we're working through putting together a process to accomplish dismissal of those cases. JUDGE ZOBEL: Do you have some idea of when you might finish the working through? MS. JOHNSON: After the effective date, your Honor, and, hopefully, quickly, but we are very mindful of Mr. Moriarty's concerns and everyone's, the settling defendants' concerns that those be dealt with quickly. JUDGE ZOBEL: The effective date is June 4th? MS. JOHNSON: Yes, and along --JUDGE ZOBEL: You want to know an exact date? MR. MORIARTY: No, your Honor. I just encourage them -- because we all know when the plan effective date is. the work on this project can be done and a filing almost immediately after the plan effective date is done. JUDGE ZOBEL: I understand Ms. Johnson to tell us that they are working on it.

1
 2
               MR. MORIARTY: Right.
 3 JUDGE ZOBEL: And they will do it as quickly as they can, and I have confidence that she will do everything that is 4 5 necessary to be done to satisfy you.
               MR. MORIARTY: As I do, your Honor. I just wanted to 6 7 make everyone aware that we may be trying to compress time 8 deadlines if we can't agree on what those deadlines should be.
 9 JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay.
10
               MS. PUIG: Your Honor, may I be heard on behalf of 11
      St. Thomas Entities?
12
               We've not been a part of those discussions, nor 13 invited to be a part of it. Is it possible that those 14 dismissals would specify that they are without prejudice to outstanding discovery requests? Because we have discovery 15 16 requests as to Ameridose.
               MS. JOHNSON: As I say, we're working on the issue, 17 18 but we have not finalized anything yet. We will continue working on it and we're mindful of what Mr. -- 19 20
               JUDGE ZOBEL: You can short circuit all of this by 21 becoming a settling defendant.
               MS. JOHNSON: We should, your Honor.
22
23
               JUDGE ZOBEL: I understand that it is being attended 24 to and I will leave it at that.
25
               MS. JOHNSON: I did have one thing that I am remiss for not mentioning earlier in my discussion, an issue that was raised and addressed with Judge Boal this morning, but I want to make this Court aware as well.

The trustee shared with me yesterday that NECC's insurers sent a letter confirming that insurance coverage for NECC ends on the effective date, which is June 4th, which means to the extent that additional expenses are incurred by Mr. Moore, those expenses will ultimately be paid out of now the settlement pot and, functionally, every dollar that's paid in expenses out of that pot reduces the recovery to tort victims.

I mention that to your Honor. We did address it at length with Judge Boal this morning, but the direct impact on that is as follows:

The more discovery that must be done and then the time that it takes to resolve discovery disputes and complete this common discovery does wind up having a negative direct fiscal impact on victims as well as the negative consequences of things just taking longer, and I wanted to bring that to the Court's attention.

JUDGE ZOBEL: Thank you. Excuse me one moment.

(Discussion off the record at the Bench.)

JUDGE ZOBEL: The reporter needs a break and I do, too, and you may all stretch, too.

(Stretch break.)

1 JUDGE ZOBEL: All right. MS. JOHNSON: So, returning to the agenda, fully-2 3 briefed motions (C). On No. 10 was heard this morning. No. 11 was also heard this morning, as were number -- all of the 4 motions listed under No. 12. 5 6 On No. 13, the parties agreed to waive oral argument 7 during this morning's hearing. 8 No. 14 and 15, then, are motions that have been 9 pending for a while. I believe the Court has either already 10 heard oral argument or it was waived. 11 JUDGE ZOBEL: No. 15 I'm denying. I've endorsed the 12 motion today and I will file it with the Clerk. 13 MS. JOHNSON: Thank you. 14 And then that brings us to (D), your Honor, briefing 15 in progress, and the only thing of note there is, again, the 16 Wayne Reed motion for expedited trial, which we would like to 17 have as early as June. 18 JUDGE ZOBEL: I'm sorry, I was looking at this so I 19 didn't hear what you said. 14 I am to decide? 20 MS. JOHNSON: Yes, please, your Honor. I understand there's no objections to those motions. They've been pending 21 22 for a while. 23 JUDGE ZOBEL: So, if there's no objection, then 24 plaintiffs' motion for consolidation, which is 14 on the list 25 and Docket No. 37 in one of the separate cases, 13-12657, is allowed.

1
 2
               MS. JOHNSON: Thank you, your Honor.
 3
               MS. KELLY: I'm sorry, I believe -- I'm Caroline Kelly from Morrison Mahoney. I believe we filed an opposition 4 5 today.
 6
               JUDGE ZOBEL: I'll leave it as decided and I'll look 7 at it.
 8 MS. KELLY: What's that?
 9
               JUDGE ZOBEL: I'm changing my notation to decide it 10 rather than it is allowed. I'll look at your opposition.
11
               MS. KELLY: Wonderful. Thank you.
12
               JUDGE ZOBEL: This is the motion to consolidate?
13
              MS. KELLY: Yes.
14
              MS. DOUGHERTY: Your know, I would just like to mention that it's completely untimely. This has been pending 15 16 in front of the Court for a length of time now.
17
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Oh, really?
18 MS. DOUGHERTY: To oppose today is untimely and we haven't had an opportunity to -- 19 20
               JUDGE ZOBEL: So, why should I hear it?
21
              MS. KELLY: If I'm referring to the correct motion, 22 it says -- 23
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Montee against Ameridose.
24
               MS. KELLY: Yeah. We filed -- we did file it today.
25
      It was filed on -- May 12th?
```

```
1
               JUDGE ZOBEL: I'm sorry?
 2
               MS. KELLY: I have it as filed on May 12th.
 3 JUDGE ZOBEL: The motion to consolidate was filed on May 12th?
 4 5 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: The one that I gave 6 you?
 7
               JUDGE ZOBEL: I don't know.
 8
               MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I'm going to have to check 9
            This is one of those just sort of cleaning up the 10 dockets. We had no inference from any defendants that there 11 was going to be any opposition whatsoever to this. It's just 12 cleaning up and having two dockets -- 13
               JUDGE ZOBEL: I'll look it, but while we're on the 14 subject, I have a request. And, here, I have a bunch of 15 copies for you guys.
16
               MS. JOHNSON: Oh, good.
17 JUDGE ZOBEL: So, here are a number of them for 18 whoever wants them. Give one to Catherine.
19 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK URSO: Catherine, okay.
20 JUDGE ZOBEL: What we have done is to list those 21 cases that now have separate numbers and are not in the MDL or 22 maybe they are but they're filing motions in the separate 23 numbers, and it is very difficult for us to follow and to 24 catch them.
25
               So, what I would like is to have the Plaintiffs'
```

1 Steering Committee look at these and tell me whether these are 2 still live motions, whether they're moot, whether they've been 3 resolved, whatever, and then I would like there to be -- I would like to enter an order that says that any motion to be 4 filed is to be filed in the MDL and -- as a motion and then 5 6 there can be a notice of motion filed from the individual 7 case. So that if the case goes back to its original 8 jurisdiction, all of the papers are listed in the original 9 docket. 10 And, Ms. Johnson, if I could task you to make sure 11 that that is implemented and that you then get a response to 12 this list, which appears to have a pile of undecided motions, 13 but I don't know whether they're undecided or not, and let us know what, if anything, needs to be decided and maybe even 14 15 give us the docket number of the MDL, on the MDL docket, okay? 16 MS. JOHNSON: We will be happy to do that, your Honor. 17 JUDGE ZOBEL: Thank you. 18 And whatever assistance defendants can give would be much appreciated as well. So, that takes care of that. 19 20 it is related to what we were just talking about. 21 And leaving your motion then -- your opposition I 22 will consider, but it is the result of the same problem, I 23 think. 24 MS. KELLY: Thank you, your Honor.

MR. GASTEL: Your Honor, as the person at the PSC most likely tasked with that task, is there any way that I 2 could get an electronic version of this chart? That would be 3 tremendously helpful to me.

               JUDGE ZOBEL: Yes, we will file it immediately, but I 4 5 haven't done it yet because I wanted to talk to you about it 6 beforehand.
 7
               MR. GASTEL: Perfect.
 8
               JUDGE ZOBEL: So, it is in a shape that is to be 9 filed electronically and will be before the end of the day as 10 an order.
11
               MS. JOHNSON: Thank you, your Honor.
12 Perhaps your Clerk could email the workable file to 13 my attention so that we can get that to Mr. Gastel.
14
               JUDGE ZOBEL: The workable file?
15
               MS. JOHNSON: The Word document or Word Perfect 16 document.
17
               JUDGE ZOBEL: She'll take care of it.
18
               MS. JOHNSON: Okay. Thank you.
19
               That brings us to (D), briefing in progress, and the 20 only thing to note there, your Honor, is No. 16 counsel has 21 requested be heard at the June 24th status conference. That's 22 the motion for expedited trial.
23
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Okay.
24
               MS. JOHNSON: And that's it.
25 JUDGE ZOBEL: Does anybody else have anything that we need to discuss?

MR. GOTTFRIED: Your Honor, I just wanted to address
-- I think it might be helpful -- there was a lot of discussion regarding the dates. The bankruptcy -- the trustee did file on the 26th, it's Docket 1890, a notice of entry of confirmation order and plan effective date and related deadlines. So, I think I just want to make that clear on the record that is available. People can see it and then the Court can look at it as well. It was filed two days ago.

JUDGE ZOBEL: Terrific. Thank you. Anybody else?

MS. PUIG: Your Honor, I just want to be clear.

Yvonne Puig for the St. Thomas Entities.

Are we taking up my motion to extend time on the -JUDGE ZOBEL: You have two minutes.

MS. PUIG: It's going to take a little longer than that, your Honor, but I'll do my very best.

We've asked to move the discovery deadline for common discovery by 90 days. We filed a motion in brief in support and a declaration setting out with a chart all of our efforts to gain discovery from those entities that we intend to submit as a part of a comparative fault submission to the jury ultimately. I won't go through each of those entities, your Honor. Only to say that it's been a very time-consuming undertaking as well as opposition everywhere. Again, I regret that you --

               JUDGE ZOBEL: I'm familiar with it.
 2
               MS. PUIG: -- you were unable to see today.
 3 was an ocean of opposition in those, and we are asking that 4 the Court extend from June 14th to September 14th for the 5 common discovery and ask that the Court consider the 6 declaration of Adam Schramek that was filed in support of our 7 memorandum. And I think I kept to two minutes.
 8
               JUDGE ZOBEL: I thank you very much.
 9 Anybody else?
10
               MS. JOHNSON: One sentence, your Honor?
11
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Did you want to say something or are 12 you leaving?
13
               MR. RABINOVITZ: I was leaving.
14
               JUDGE ZOBEL: Well, you're welcome to leave.
15
               I thank you all and I will look forward to seeing you 16 on June 24th and, in the meantime, receiving your various 17 submissions.
18
               MS. JOHNSON: Thank you, your Honor.
19
               MR. GASTEL: Thank you, your Honor.
20
               MS. DOUGHERTY: Thank you, your Honor.
